PAXTON HOUSE

Built to the design of Robert Adam in 1758 by Patrick Home of Billie for his intended bride, Sophie de Brandt, Paxton is one of the finest 18th century Palladian country houses in Britain with the largest collection of Chippendale furniture in Scotland.

The concerts will be presented in Paxton's elegant Picture Gallery, which houses paintings from the collection of the National Galleries of Scotland, including works by Raeburn, Wilkie and Lawrence.

HOW TO GET THERE

Paxton House is signposted 3 miles from the A1 Berwick upon Tweed bypass on the B6461, and from A697 junction with B6461.

Edinburgh – 54 miles Newcastle – 56 miles

British Rail: Berwick east coast main line – 10 minutes
Bus: No. 32 'Paxton House Bus' from Berwick, daily except Sunday.

PLEASE NOTE

Seating is unreserved. Doors open from 7.00 pm

We regret that latecomers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the programme.

If you are a wheelchair-user or require assistance, please let us know in advance.
