Becoming a Friend

Music at Paxton presents an annual international summer festival of chamber music at Paxton House on the banks of the River Tweed in the Scottish Borders.

The Festival relies on the ongoing support from a range of sources including trusts, funding bodies, sponsors and individuals, in order to secure its long-term future.

Becoming a Friend of Music at Paxton is a great way to enjoy a closer relationship with the Festival, providing long-term support to help ensure the Festival thrives, whilst receiving exclusive benefits including access to priority booking.

Benefits

FRIENDS

- Advance mailing of the festival brochure
- Priority booking period* before the box office opens to the public
- Acknowledgement on the website
- Invitation to supporters' launch reception and concert in the Spring
- Invitation to supporters' reception during the Festival

BENEFACTORS

All the benefits above, plus:

- Acknowledgement in concert programmes
- Complimentary concert programmes, posted out prior to the Festival
- Invitation to pre-concert reception during the Festival

PATRONS

All the benefits above, plus

- The opportunity to meet the artists during the Festival
- Invitations to occasional events at Paxton House

*Please note:

The Picture Gallery is an intimate venue, holding 140 people. It is our policy to ensure that some tickets will be available to the general public once the priority booking period is over. The number of tickets available to Friends during the priority booking period is therefore limited, and all tickets are subject to availability.
